Loving Christ | Loving the Church | Loving the Community 愛基督 愛教會 愛社區

Seattle Formosan Christian Church continues the thanksgiving and celebration of its 40th anniversary with a series of community service projects

On October 4th, Seattle Formosan Christian Church held a thanksgiving service to commemorate the 40th anniversary of its founding. In addition to all pastors who have served in SFCC in the past, numerous friends and family were also present to share joyous occasion. The celebration activities began with an outdoor prayer meeting the day before in a park. Approximately 60 brothers and sisters from church turned out on a sunny day and prayed for individuals, families, work, community, nations and the world. Then on October 4th, more than 300 gathered in SFCC for the thanksgiving celebration. More information can be found at: <http://www.seattlefcc.org/events/40anniversary.htm>

In the coming months, we will have a number of community service projects to live out our calling to love Christ, love the church, and love the community. We invite you to join us in these meaningful events. Together, let us bring God's love to the world around us.
