

Closing Thoughts

Praise God for another successful mission trip and thank you for your prayers and support. You are part of team, even in Seattle! I really enjoy having the opportunity to share God's Love with the children of Chungliao and to tell them how much Jesus Loves them.

My fondest memory from this mission is to see the joy and enthusiasm from the youths during the mission. It's great to see them serving at such a young age. May God continue to use each of us to share His Love with the people around us.

During my 2 week trip to the Taiwan mission trip, I met a lot of new friends. It wasn't what I expected though... It was a lot better!

In the day we had a lot of fun teaching the kids about God and friendship. Though I was only a Teacher Assistant it was a lot of fun...

Especially lunch break. Me, Irvin, Isaac, and Brian got jumped on and messed around by them (the students). It was mostly Irvin though. Irvin always had a bunch of 5th and 6th graders jump on him! It was a really great experience and I want to go again next year!

This mission trip was a great learning experience for me! The tasks in the mission were tough for me and I was nervous all the time. I learned to trust God that he would guide and help me to finish this task. I think it's a lesson of faith for me.

The most enjoyable part of the mission was the worship part. When I saw kids singing worship songs and doing the motions I felt so touched. I wish that one day they may recall some of the lyrics in their lives and experience God's love.

Yeah, so it was really cool how I could just go to Taiwan at such a young age for a mission. I had a really good time spending time with the kids and just playing around. I hope we really impacted those kid's lives and they would become Christians one day.

And it was amazing that I could actually be a part of that process. Our team suffered many mosquito bites and not getting enough sleep but it was all worth it. I really look forward to next year and hopefully seeing the kids again. This was a great experience. =)

Well, things didn't go as bad as what I expected. Actually, it was much better. Although kids were noisy and lost their concentration sometimes, I was glad that they were able to get the idea that friends should help each other.

I was not sure how much they got about Jesus. However, I did observe that kids could sing those songs we led every morning and afternoon loudly. Although they might not really get it, at least something was planted in their mind. I believe that God will take care of the rest.

The mission trip was really fun because of a lot of reasons... I made lots of friends, and had a great time being a teacher!

Even though prepping for the crafts and games were sometimes tiring, it was worth it when we ended up having lots of fun with the kids later on! During our lunch break, we all relaxed, and i played lots of card games with the kids! I'll definitely come back next year!!

It's a very good opportunity to tell the kids about God when they are young and have pure of minds. Especially, our topic is "Friends." We shared about how God likes to be our friends and loves us forever. For most of the time, I prayed God will give me enough energy to work with kids at the camp. I know God will always be with me because I understand I couldn't do this service without Him. I like to thank God again. Let us give all glory and praise to God! Amen!

The mission trip was super duper FUN! I loved how I could experience the wonders of Taiwan. From the extreme heat, interesting food, and cool culture, IT WAS AWESOME!!!!!!

I loved playing with the kids and liked to be the teacher and have people listen to me. This was a great adventure for me and I encourage everyone to come! It is extremely fun!

I think mission is not only about sharing God's Word. Most importantly, it is an opportunity for us to share a little of God's love that we have experience with the people who don't know Him.

Often it is not the message or what one hears that touches someone. Instead, it is the love that they experience that has the most impact.

I hope you will join the mission next year. Don't worry if you don't know how to share God's Word. Just go and share His love.

This is my second year going to the Taiwan Mission Trip. I met a lot of new kids, and I connected to them a lot. We had many casual conversations that ended up with kids crawling on me or something. This year was pretty much the same as last year, but I made plenty of new friends and I was able to have a wider variety of kids to talk to. It was very fun and I will defiantly try my best to come again next year. It feels very good to know that someday, because you went to the Taiwan Mission Trip, you help someone turn to God. Even though I didn't write much, I hope this will encourage other people to come next year.

I asked God to reveal His will for me in Chungliao. I prayed for tolerance to heat and protection from insects of all types.

God answered by showing me how his servants from our mission team and in Chungliao church have coped while focusing on spread His Word. I observed. I heard. I experienced. I was deeply touched.
