The Road to Damascus

Acts 9:1-9

¹ Meanwhile, Saul was still breathing out murderous threats against the Lord's disciples. He went to the high priest
² and asked him for letters to the synagogues in Damascus, so that if he found any there who belonged to the Way, whether men or women, he might take them as prisoners to Jerusalem.
³ As he neared Damascus on his journey, suddenly a light from heaven flashed around him.
⁴ He fell to the ground and heard a voice say to him, "Saul, Saul, why do you persecute me?"
⁵ "Who are you, Lord?" Saul asked. "I am Jesus, whom you are persecuting," he replied.
⁶ "Now get up and go into the city, and you will be told what you must do."
⁷ The men traveling with Saul stood there speechless; they heard the sound but did not see anyone.
⁸ Saul got up from the ground, but when he opened his eyes he could see nothing. So they led him by the hand into Damascus.
⁹ For three days he was blind, and did not eat or drink anything.

Ezekiel 1:26-28

²⁶ Above the expanse over their heads was what looked like a throne of sapphire, and high above on the throne was a figure like that of a man.
²⁷ I saw that from what appeared to be his waist up he looked like glowing metal, as if full of fire, and that from there down he looked like fire; and brilliant light surrounded him.
²⁸ Like the appearance of a rainbow in the clouds on a rainy day, so was the radiance around him. This was the appearance of the likeness of the glory of the LORD. When I saw it, I fell facedown, and I heard the voice of one speaking.
